

For Equipment costing $100,000 or more, this certificate must be executed before completing a purchase order charged to a federally sponsored project.

Department	Fund Number
Purchase Order Number	Principal Investigator
Equipment Description
Approximate Value	Model Number

The above described equipment has been screened against the inventory of Washington University:

- No such items or substantially similar item is owned by the University
- Items similar to the above described equipment are owned by the University and may not be available for shared use

Location of asset	Custodial Department
-------------------	----------------------

Property Accounting Certification

Date

The above equipment listed by the Property Accounting Department is not available for sufficient shared use because:

- The equipment is not sufficiently available during normal working hours (include justification below)
- The equipment is not similar to the required (include justification below)
- The equipment is not located in area that would allow usage for the project (include justification below)

Justification for insufficiency of shared use:

Principal Investigator Certification

Date