

For Equipment costing $100,000 or more, this certificate must be executed before completing a purchase order charged to a federally sponsored project.

Department	Fund Number
Purchase Order Number	Principal Investigator
Equipment Description
Approximate Value	Model Number

The above described equipment has been screened against the inventory of Washington University:

- No such items or substantially similar item is owned by the University - PI signature not required
- Items similar to the above described equipment are owned by the University and may not be available for shared use - PI signature and justification required

Location of asset	Custodial Department
-------------------	----------------------

Property Accounting Certification

Date

The above equipment listed by the Property Accounting Department is not available for sufficient shared use because:

The equipment is not sufficiently available during normal working hours (include justification below)

The equipment is not similar to the required (include justification below)

The equipment is not located in area that would allow usage for the project (include justification below)

Justification for insufficiency of shared use:

Principal Investigator Certification

Date